For those seeking exciting architecture beyond the norm with soaring ceilings and added dimensions of height plus large -scale rooms planned throughout, this is a standout in design excellence.

The entrance foyer meets the eye vertically and horizontally previewing the height and expansiveness of the home.

The Master bedroom at the front of the house is a true King size room with generous walk in robe and on trend designer ensuite with floor to ceiling Italianate tiles.

The three extra bedrooms all have large robes with stylish sliding timber doors.

The kitchen's elongated island bench intermingles with the open plan living zone with its vaulted ceilings. The living space has beautiful function and form and caters comfortably for extra guests. The splash back pressed metal look ceramic tiles, adds an extra aesthetic to this
