3  2  3

Imagine settling into this wonderful north facing property that greets you with all the elements that create quiet coastal living within a short level walk to the famed Narrawallee inlet and beach.

Hidden away from the street behind an established garden this period style home, is a rare find of country/coastal living.

Inside the beautiful blackbutt floors complete the country on the coast feel.

Outside the spotted gum balconies are the perfect place to retreat and hear the morning birdlife or relax in the afternoon reading a book.

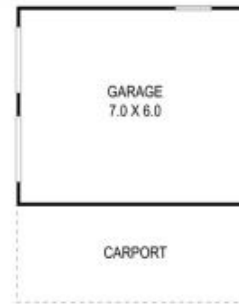

First inspection this coming Saturday 13th March 10.30am - 11.30am
