

11 Galiga Crescent Dolphin Point NSW

4  2  2

Newly completed and flawless inside and out, you will be impressed by the stunning living and outdoor spaces, crowned by a luxurious plunge pool. Architecturally designed, the home takes the form of two pavilions providing separation of living modes, connected by a communal living space. The landscaped courtyard buffering the two pavilions features a Queensland Bottle tree, providing a tranquil centrepiece allowing an abundance of natural light and ventilation throughout the home. With solar power living, and a layout that makes the most of all seasons, you will quickly fall in love with this prestigious property.

The elegant black and white exterior inspired by Nordic barn-style architecture combines effortlessly with internal pitched roofs, highlight windows, and coastal luxe elements of dark engineered hickory floors, locally crafted timber
