Newly completed and flawless inside and out, this solar passive designer home takes the form of two pavilions providing separation of living modes. The calming coastal interiors exude sophistication with polished concrete floors, soaring high ceilings and luxurious fittings throughout.

The open plan living, dining and kitchen feature clean geometric lines and high profile sliders opening to a large north east facing deck perfect for entertaining. The designer kitchen is both classical and contemporary, featuring a large centre island, double Smeg ovens, high composite stone counters, custom cabinetry and a Butler's pantry.

Retreat to the master suite on a lower level, featuring high ceilings, large walk in wardrobe and a sumptuous ensuite with elegant brass fittings and free standing bath.
